

Miss Sallie Fisher, a Salt Lake Girl Who Has Made a Great Hit in "The Office Boy," Frank Daniels' Latest Success.

Elaborate Dinner.

The most elaborately appointed dinner of the week was that of Thursday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. William H. Jones entertained a large party of friends. In the dining-room the decorations were all in green, a mound of palms and fern occupying the center of the table, at either end of which was a silver candelabrum with green candles and shades. Surrounding the base of the candelabrum were shamrock leaves formed of ropes of smilax. The place cards were also decorated with tiny sprays of shamrock. Mr. and Mrs. Jones' guests were Dr. and Mrs. Plummer, Dr. and Mrs. Vincent, Dr. and Mrs. Loomis, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Talbot, Miss Talbot, Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Young, Mr. and Mrs. L. Lincoln Borge, Dr. and Mrs. M. R. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Hal Brown, Judge and Mrs. George F. Goodwin, Prof. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McClain, Dr. Faden, Mrs. D. E. Moore and Miss Drew.

Interesting Engagement.

Many Salt Laker's read with interest yesterday of the engagement of Miss Ivy Langham and Lieutenant-Commander de Faramond de Lafajole of the French embassy at Washington. Miss Langham, who is a sister of the Baroness von Sternberg, now of Washington, formerly made her home here. The marriage will take place in the early spring at the German embassy in Washington and will be a brilliant social event.

Seniors' Banquet.

A merry lot of young people were those who attended the annual banquet of the seniors of the Salt Lake high school on Thursday evening at the Commercial club. Principal George A. Eaton was the only guest of honor, the remaining places being laid for members of the class of '94. Red and black pennants and streamers were hung about the walls, while the class colors of orange and white were used in the table decorations. Cordon Higgins presided as toastmaster and after his greeting the following toasts were responded to by members of the class: "Class," Irene Shoen, "Leap Year," Erle Havermor, "Senior Boys," Rhea Rogers, "Senior Girls," Richard Cabell, "Cadets," Will Fowler, "Juniors," Nell Sorenson, "Athletics," Ben Harris, "Farewell," Principal George A. Eaton.

P. E. O.'s Entertainment.

Delightful in every way was the informal evening given by the P. E. O. society on Friday evening at the home of the Misses Palmer on First street. The programme was a most pleasing one, including vocal solos by Mrs. Melvin and Mrs. Andrews; piano solos by Mrs. Christy and Mrs. Gant; and readings by Mrs. John Reed, Miss Hays, Wishard was the accompanist of the evening. Throughout the house the decorations were in green, consisting of palms, ferns, smilax and plumes. Mrs. Freeland, Mrs. McMahon, Mrs. Reed and Miss Palmer made up the committee having charge of the entirely pleasant entertainment.

May Come to Fort Douglas.

Should the Twenty-ninth Infantry be stationed at Fort Douglas, and the impression is general that it will, there will be three Captains of the regiment who are already well and popularly known in Salt Lake City—Capt. John E. Woodward of company C, Capt. Bryant H. Wells of company L, and Capt. Frank J. Morrow, the quartermaster of the regiment. The Twenty-ninth is now in the Philippines, where it has been stationed for more than two years past. The regiment will sail from Manila early in April.

For Chicago Visitor.

Miss Martha B. Hirth of Chicago, who is spending a few weeks in this city, was the guest of honor at a dinner party on Thursday evening given by Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hirth. In the center of the long table was an exquisite piece of lace over green satin, and on this a silver candelabrum with green shades and candles. At either end of the table were stacked bunches of green candles, and smilax in the form of scrolls trailed over the cloth. Tiny sprays of shamrock were done in water colors on the place cards, to which were attached small clay pipes. Invited to meet Miss Hirth were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Greenwood, Mrs. David Evans.

Entertain in Washington.

A unique entertainment has been planned by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh at their palatial home in Washington, D. C., on the 26th inst. in honor of Mr. and Mrs. McClurg of Colorado Springs.
